

NEW BOOK - A Message of Hope from the Angels by Lorna Byrne

I'm thrilled that I am finally allowed to tell you all about my new book A Message of Hope from the Angels. It will be published in the UK and Ireland on the 16th February

I meet so many people at the moment who are struggling to hold on to hope. We all need hope, without it we will give up on everything. We need hope to have the courage and strength to live our everyday lives to the full and to create a better future for ourselves, our families and our world. Hope makes what seems impossible, possible.

A Message of Hope from the Angels is my response to the challenging times in which we are living. In it I want to share with you, and the world - all the hope, and there is so much, that God and the angels are showing me.

I talk about lots of things I have never talked about before including.

- How I see angels holding lights in front of people who are financially stressed to give them courage.
- What God and the angels have told me about being a parent – how this is the most important job in the world - bar none!
- How angels play cupid and tie golden threads around some couples to help them to learn how to love.
- The healing energy that I see flowing from each one of us, how we can strengthen it and use it to help ourselves, and others.
- How spiritual evolution is speeding up and how I see some young people hearing and responding to the angels as naturally as I do (even though they are not seeing angels).

A Message of Hope from the Angels is different to the books I have written before. Angels in my hair and Stairways to Heaven were in some ways more about my life – this book is focused on your life; about the hope that is in it – if only you could see it.

Over the next four weeks in the run up to the launch of A Message of Hope from the Angels I'm going to be sharing with you short videos I have filmed to help you to see more of the hope that is in your life. In this week's one I am going to tell you a little about the Angel of Hope. Have a look here http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qdVR_vnErhc

I pray that everyone who reads this newsletter, watches this video or reads this book receives the gift of hope in their lives.

Blessings to you, your family and loved ones

Lorna
